Saint Bartholomew, Apostle

— August 24

Saint Bartholomew is one of the Twelve Apostles, mentioned sixth in the three Gospel lists (Matthew 10:3; Mark 3:18; Luke 6:14) and seventh in the list of Acts (1:13). The name (Bartholomaios) means “son of Talmai” which was an ancient Hebrew name.

Besides being listed as an Apostle, he is not otherwise mentioned in the New Testament, at least not under the name and Catholic tradition have identified Bartholomew as Nathaniel in the Gospel of John (John 1:45-51, and 21:2).

Bartholomew: many ancient writers

The Gospel passage read at Mass on the feast of Saint Bartholomew is precisely this passage from John (1:45-51) where Nathaniel is introduced to Jesus by his friend Phillip, and Jesus says of him “Here is a true child of Israel. There is no duplicity in him (1:47).”

We are presented with the Apostle’s character in this brief and beautiful dialogue with the Lord Jesus. He is a good Jew, honest and innocent, a just man, who devotes much time to quiet reflection and prayer – “under the fig tree (1:48)” – and has been awaiting the Messiah, the Holy One of God.

At Jesus’ mention that “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you (1:48),” Nathaniel responded “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel (1:49)”

Being “a true child of Israel,” Nathaniel was a man well-read in the Scriptures and knew what they said of the Messiah and where he would come from. This is why he is skeptical of Phillip’s claim that Jesus is the Messiah, “Can anything good come out of Nazareth (1:46)?”

But Nathaniel was lacking “duplicity” – that is, his heart was undivided, his intentions pure – his openness to reality was always ready to recognize and surrender to the truth when he encountered it. He remained open to his friend Phillip’s invitation to “Come and see (1:46).” In encountering Jesus and hearing His words, he found himself face to face with the Truth Himself, and, like John the Baptist’s leap in his mother’s womb at the Lord’s presence, Nathaniel’s words leapt out of his own heart in a clear and simple confession of faith, “Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!”

Jesus, in Matthew 5:8, says, “Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God.” In Nathaniel we have an example of the pure man who sees – recognizes – God when confronted with Him and on seeing Him believes in Him and upon believing in Him, follows Him.

Nothing is known for sure about the life of Nathaniel/Bartholomew after the Ascension of Jesus but tradition holds that he preached in the East and died a martyr’s death in Armenia, being flayed alive for having won converts to the Lord Jesus.

Father’s Note

“She has surpassed the riches of the virgins, the confessors, the martyrs, the apostles, the prophets, the for she herself is the first-fruit of the virgins, the mirror of confessors, the rose of martyrs, the ruler of apostles, the oracle of prophets, the daughter of patriarchs, the queen of angels.”

Greetings St Dorothy's!

My name is Samantha Cloutier. I am 23 years old, and along with my family, belong to St Dorothy's. I graduated Cleveland Community College in December 2020 and began praying on where God wanted to take me next. February of this year I felt the call to serve God through mission work. I applied to NET Ministries and was soon accepted. NET is a nonprofit Catholic organization which stands for National Evangelization Team. I will be a missionary, representing NET, serving with them for nine months starting mid-August through May 2022. I will be serving side-by-side with fellow single young adults, missioning to boys and girls from 6th to 12th grade, sharing the truth of the Gospel and planting seeds of Christ's love for them.

The cost to cover each missionary's needs is $20,000. In order to attend, we are asked to raise a minimum of $6,000. I am asking if you will prayerfully consider helping me get as close to the $20,000 as I can. Through making a pledge of any amount - whether a one-time or monthly donation - you would be a part of my team in carrying out God's work. For more information please feel free to contact me at: sam.cloutier97@gmail.com or pick up a business card and donation envelope in the foyer.

Thank you for your consideration and prayers,

Samantha Cloutier
